ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA

READY FOR YOU NOW—THESE ESTEEMED REFERENCE BOOKS

THE 1947 BOOK OF THE YEAR—a concise, authoritative record of post-war 1946 in a single 896-page volume. 1118 articles. 670 eminent contributors.

WORLD ATLAS—in one 592-page volume. More than 300 maps in full color including airline distances, world spheres of influence, a time zone chart. Complete index.

You wouldn't give a high school reference work to an elementary school student, any more than you'd give him an oversize bat when he steps to the plate.

Remember, he's still small-fry, and he'll learn more readily, do better with a reference work specifically designed for him.
—Britannica Junior.

Its vocabulary is carefully planned to be understood by pupils at the elementary school level. That's equally true of sentence structure, subject matter and range of information. Colorful how-to-do-it action illustrations create interest, whet the appetite for learning.

Britannica Junior had to be authentic and accurate to meet the high standards of Encyclopaedia Britannica. More than 200 eminent teachers are members among its skilled contributors. And ready-reference volume develops the index habit—helps students find the right information quickly, saving time for you.

Discover today the value of Britannica Junior to your library. For further information about any of the members of the Encyclopaedia Britannica Family, write Educational Department 187-r, Encyclopaedia Britannica, 20 N. Wacker Drive, Chicago 6, Ill., and indicate whether you are interested for library or personal use.

CURTIS RECORD COLLECTION

The Alameda Free Library has an interesting collection of records, named in honor of Jane I. Curtis, the former librarian. For many years the library has had a Talking Book Machine and the Readers' Digest on records, to be loaned to shut-ins and to the blind. The library had also a Swap Table, to which the patrons brought their old records, taking home an equal number. This was managed by the patrons of the library. In addition the Linguaphone records in Spanish were used for classes three times a week. The Curtis collection contains only classical and semi-classical music. In making the original purchase, The Recordaid, a monthly magazine, was used. Each record is given a record number, and is indexed by composer, title, artist and type of music. Patrons have access to the file and ask for records by number. A patron may borrow three single records or one album, for one week. Records are filed in their own covers behind the desk. For circulation the records are carefully padded and placed in large carrying envelopes with the patron's number and the date due stamped on it. Complete information giving card number, title, date due and the record number is noted on a colored card filed in the charging tray. Records are examined upon return and scratches are noted on the filing cover. All damages are paid for by the borrower. Books about music and the programs of local concerts are given publicity in connection with the records. Reserves are taken for records as for books. It is hoped to have a phonograph with ear-phones so that borrowers may hear records before they take them home. Noon-day concerts, with historical background presented by staff or patrons, are also planned.

Dr. Lewis F. Stieg, a member of the faculty of the University of Illinois Library School, has been appointed director of the Library School of the University of Southern California.

POSITION OPEN

WANTED: Professionally trained children's and young people's librarian, by Coronado Public Library, Coronado, California.

OVERDUE, the lively publication of the San Diego Public Library, explains the origin of the name Dictionary Hill, a popular nickname for a subdivision put on the market in 1911 as East San Diego Villa Heights, consisting of 480 acres of bare waterless ground. The firm that disposed of the lots sold books (probably encyclopedias instead of dictionaries) and each purchaser in the middle west received a lot in East San Diego Villa Heights as a premium.

From OVERDUE, we learn that the Lost & Found Department of the San Diego Public Library found one Harry L. Goldberg, a La Mesa resident. The Librarian received a letter from the Union of Russian Jews asking for information about Mr. Goldberg, whose brother Ralph in Odessa was trying to locate him. Found, Mr. Goldberg said he had been trying to make contact with Brother Ralph since he (Harry) left Russia in 1910. Another achievement of the library's Lost & Found department was the return of a wallet found by James Riddles, a library worker. The wallet contained $50 and no identification of any kind. A member of the staff worked for more than an hour on the telephone, calling every number on every card and scrap of paper in the billfold and finally located the owner by checking a number scrawled on the outside of a small white envelope in the wallet. The owner called to pick up his wallet. He murmured again and again, "Praise the Lord," and explained that the little white envelope contained $15 as his tithe for his church. "That tithe brought it home to me," he whispered.

GATEWAY TO VICTORY

by CAPTAIN JAMES W. HAMILTON and LT. WILLIAM J. BOLCE, JR.

The wartime story of the San Francisco Port of Embarkation, with many of the war's once top secrets told for the first time. This book relives the urgent battle of supply, the dramatic scenes of embarkation, the triumphal return home of our victorious troops. It is profusely illustrated.

Cloth-bound, $3.00.

FROM COWHIDES TO GOLDEN FLEECE

by REUBEN L. UNDERHILL

A vivid biography of Thomas O. Larkin, striking personality and dominant figure in California history, revealing for the first time new data from Larkin's hitherto unpublished correspondence. Professor Allan Nevins, Columbia University, twice a Pulitzer Prize winner, says: "... a book of genuine importance to students of California history ... (which) ... should have a strong appeal to the general reader. Mr. Underhill has written a vigorous and appealing biography of one of the key figures of California in the period 1830-1860." Illustrated. $4.00

NO MORE A STRANGER

by ANNE B. FISHER

An authentic story—the little known romance of young Robert Louis Stevenson and Mrs. Osbourne for the sake of which Stevenson left family and fortune in Scotland. In old California Stevenson found at last the reward of a devoted lover. Six years of research and interviews with those who knew the struggling young writer in his Monterey days make this book absorbing history and stirring romance. "Deserves to be a best seller," THE CHICAGO SUN: "The author here has stuck to fact for her basis, and ... her interpretation, even through her semi-fiction method, is both sensible and sensitive," NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE.

BONZANA RAILROADS

by GILBERT H. KNEISS

— 1947 edition —

To the exciting and colorful stories of five small gold-rush period railroads—each with its great ambition to monopolize a bonanza, to make some obscure town the Chicago of the West—has been added a new chapter on the Nevada City Narrow-gauge Railway. These were grandiose and florid days in railroading and Mr. Kneiss's book reflects them vividly.

The New York Herald Tribune called the last edition of this book "... a chronicle of the most glamorous single group of American railroads." Illustrated.....$3.00

BUILD YOUR OWN ADOBE

by PAUL and DORIS ALLER

The proof that where there's a will there's a way—even against the odds of the housing shortage—should entitle this book to headlines, if not some sort of prize. Already a best-seller, BUILD YOUR OWN ADOBE is the story of how two private citizens and their young daughter built a charming substantial adobe house with their own hands and little else besides some Sears Roebuck fixtures, clay, and enthusiasm. Delightfully written and illustrated with attractive photographs and drawings, BUILD YOUR OWN ADOBE sounds like a Robinson Crusoe adventure in the 20th century.

LIBRARY ACTIVITIES

SURVEY

A survey of the library holdings of the eight campuses of the University of California has recently been completed by Dr. Fulmer Mood. The collections surveyed and evaluated are those on the Berkeley and Los Angeles campuses, of the College of Agriculture at Davis, the Citrus Experiment Station at Riverside, the Scripps Institution of Oceanography at La Jolla, and Lick Observatory on Mount Hamilton, as well as the Medical Center in San Francisco and the College Library at Santa Barbara. These collections comprise 2,158,000 volumes.

Collections and catalogs were examined and the opinion of the various faculties secured. The resulting report will be mimeographed in about 800 pages. It will not be published, but will be mimeographed for University administrative purposes. It will be possible, however, to mimeograph a small additional number of copies for purchase by interested libraries and other agencies, if enough demand is expressed. There will be no free distribution, and copies will be sold at $10 per set.

Anyone interested in purchasing a copy of this report should communicate immediately with Mr. Donald Coney, Librarian, University of California, Berkeley 4, California.

Contracts have been awarded by the Regents for the new east wing of the Library of the University of California in Los Angeles. It will provide undergraduate and graduate reading rooms, a periodical room, a typing room and special facilities for blind and paraplegic veterans. This will allow additional facilities to be installed in the main library building, such as a new map room, a book repair room, a public document room and a photographic laboratory.

PUBLIC LIBRARY DEMONSTRATION BILL S. 48 and H.R. 2465

H.R. 2465 was introduced in the House, March 10th by Representative Th. A. Jenkins, Ohio, and S. 48 was introduced in the Senate January 6th by Senators Lister Hill, Alabama and George A. Aiken, Vermont.

The two Bills are identical in text and are designed to encourage community self-help. The measures would grant $25,000 a year outright—and up to $75,000 a year additional to be matched by state funds—for taking free library service to those people now living in rural areas which lack libraries. The program would last for a five year period and could be carried on by various methods. After the demonstration period, the people in the districts vote on whether or not they want to keep the library service. Experience has shown that the answer is usually "yes."

The communities would be expected to carry on from there setting stimulating examples to their neighbors who also lack libraries. That influence will spread in an ever-widening circle to provide books for everybody, thereby bringing self-education within the reach of all.

The Committee on Checklist of County and Local Histories, a sub-committee of the CLA Northern Committee on Regional co-operation, has prepared a preliminary list to be checked by California librarians. The Chairman, Ethel Blumann, Oakland Public Library, states that two groups of titles are entered under each county; first, the formal county histories, and second, supplementary materials on cities, towns, townships and regions as well as descriptive industrial, economic and other special phases of county history. The term history is interpreted broadly, and occasional notes indicating good biographies of figures important in California history or useful industrial data will be included.

ASSOCIATION NEWS

ANNUAL MEETING

SAN FRANCISCO, JUNE 29, 1947

CLA will hold its annual meeting at the High School of Commerce, Van Ness Ave. and Hayes St. This location, very close to the Civic Center, brings meeting places for the general session, section meetings, and the luncheon within five minutes' walking distance of each other.

Three sections will have morning meetings. The Municipal Libraries Section will meet in a classroom of the High School of Commerce. The College, University and Research Libraries and Trustees Sections will meet in the San Francisco Public Library.

Mr. Carl Milam, Executive Secretary of the American Library Association, who has recently returned from Paris, will be our luncheon speaker, his subject "Unesco." Members will gather for this luncheon at the Whitcomb Hotel.

At the afternoon session in the High School of Commerce committee reports will be heard and Dr. Lynn T. White, Mills College President, will speak on "Americanism With a Grain of Salt." Mr. Edwin T. Coman will report on the work of the Committee on Revision of the Constitution, and a general discussion will follow. Dr. Laurence C. Powell will report for the Activities Committee, and Mrs. Dorothy E. Rosen for the Committee on Education.

DISTRICT MEETINGS

Joint Meetings at Santa Cruz, October 4th and 5th

It is hoped that many C.L.A. Members from other districts as well as the three combining for the meeting will come to Santa Cruz for this week-end. The Hotel Casa Del Rey, Santa Cruz and its beautiful beach, and the bright October weather of the region will combine with the meeting to make a pleasant week-end.

Plans are being made for an afternoon meeting on Saturday the 4th, a dinner and an evening meeting. Nothing is scheduled for Sunday beyond possible group breakfasts, as it is thought members will want to have the morning for sightseeing and informal talk with friends.

The Executive Committee of CLA will hold its meeting at this time.

SOUTHERN DISTRICT MEETING

The annual meeting of the Southern District of the California Library Association was held on Saturday, April 12th, in the auditorium of the Santa Ana Ebell Club. Mrs. Margaret Morrison, District president, presided. The meeting was opened with a brief address of welcome by Willard Smith, Chairman of the Orange County Board of Supervisors. Mrs. Eleanor Hitt Morgan brought greetings from the State Library.

Mrs. Thelma Jackman, Vice-president and Membership Chairman, reported that as a result of the Committee's efforts to secure members, 91 new names have been added, bringing the membership of the Southern District to 882, 45% of the total membership of the California Library Association.

Dr. Hazel Dean, Acting Director of the Graduate School of Library Science, University of Southern California, brought highlights of the 1947 A.L.A. Midwinter conference.

Dr. Evelyn Little, President of the California Library Association, spoke briefly on activities of the Association.

Marion Horton, reporting for the Southern Section of the School Library

Association of California, mentioned the publication of the Bulletin, the monthly Book Breakfasts, and the collection of books for libraries in the Philippines.

Robert Vosper, Chairman of the College and University Libraries Section, gave a brief survey of the section and stated that special attention is being given to problems of pay and personnel classification.

The report of the Southern California Chapter of the Special Libraries Association was given by Doris Stratton, Secretary. She spoke particularly of their in-service training program.

Miriam Matthews, Chairman of the CLA Committee on Intellectual Freedom, introduced and recommended for adoption two Resolutions protesting the attacks on the social studies textbooks "Land of the Soviets," by Marguerite Stewart, and the "Building America" series, and urging the defeat of Senate Bills 1026 and 1027. The Resolutions were adopted, and the Secretary was instructed to send a copy to each member of the Senate Education Committee.

The morning session closed with an interesting talk by Idwal Jones, California author.

The luncheon in the Peacock room of the clubhouse was followed by two panel discussions. B. J. Caldwell, librarian of the Pomona Public Library, was chairman of the panel on Personnel. A panel on Youth and reading was led by Helen Iredell, librarian of the Woodrow Wilson High School in Long Beach.

ETHEL HELLIWELL,
Secretary.

MOUNT SHASTA DISTRICT

The meeting of the Mt. Shasta District, held April 19-20 opened in the Niles Hotel in Alturas with words of welcome by the District President, Edith Gantt.

Mrs. Dorothy Egbert reported for membership. Dr. Evelyn Steel Little, president of CLA, was introduced. The report of the Intellectual Freedom Committee was distributed and discussed. It was decided to send a protest on Senate Bills 1026 and 1027 to our representatives in the State Legislature, and to the chairman of the Education Committee. Assembly Bill 2484 on the elimination of the sales tax on library books was discussed. Arthur Wagstaff spoke of the proposed new postal rates being considered in Congress. A resolution from the Mt. Shasta District was sent to the Congressional Committee on Postal Rates in protest. Thelma Neaville and Mrs. Morse spoke on public relations.

After a delightful informal banquet, the evening meeting was held in the High School auditorium. A group of librarians gave an amusing skit. Dr. Little spoke on international understanding and how necessary it is for all of us to have sympathetic understanding of other peoples.

On Sunday morning the librarians gathered at the Modoc County Library for discussion of special collections on the district. Miss Gantt showed pictures from the school art collection. Lenala Martin talked about the art books in Lassen County. Mrs. Laurel Hjelte described the extensive mining collection in the Plumas County collection. Thelma Neaville told of the historical collections of the Marysville Public Library. This is probably the oldest library in the state. The meeting closed with a buffet luncheon served by the assistants in the Modoc County Library.

LENALA A. MARTIN
Secretary.

TRUSTEES SECTION

On April 24, 400 letters were sent by the President of the Section to trustees of California, most of whom are not CLA members. They were cordially invited to join both CLA and ALA and to attend the conferences in San Francisco. Trustees, will you not encourage other trustees to join these organizations and to attend the meetings? Librarians, will you bring the value of the conferences to the attention of your Board of Directors?

The Trustees Section of CLA will meet Sunday morning June 29 in the Commissioners' Room of the San Francisco Public Library, for discussion of problems and policies, with some thought given to the program for the annual meeting in Santa Cruz in October. A trustees' table at the CLA luncheon at the Whitcomb will give us opportunity for friendly contacts. We shall hear Carl Milam, ALA Executive Secretary speak. The opening reception of the ALA comes Sunday evening, when we shall be happy to greet the president of the ALA Trustees Section, Mrs. Samuel Mitchell of Chicago, and the vice-president, Paul R. Benson of Newcastle, Indiana.

MINNIE F. KNOX,
President

JUNIOR MEMBERS SECTION

At Coronado in October the Junior Members Round Table decided to send aid to foreign librarians, and in due course the Southern District Chairman received a forwarded letter from Miss Barbara Nagy, of the Budapest Municipal Library. With the generous assistance of other librarians and their staffs, a large box was posted to her in February. It included clothing, shoes, and a few staple food items. Here are a few sentences from her prompt and grateful reply. She has also sent some folders on Budapest's past glories and present chaos.

"Our library has about one million books, organised in Melvil Dewey system of Decimal Classification. We have 25 branches in the several districts of Budapest. I am working since 18 years in our Order department, of which I am the leader, so I am in constant touch with English and American books and bibliographies. I am graduated at the University of Budapest in mathematics and physics. We work from 8:30 A.M. to 5 P.M.; this work is very interesting but as I have to attend in the evening also to my housekeeping, it is a pity that not much time is left to private intellectual work and further studies.

Since the war our life is very complicated; we have suffered also very much in the siege, having been forced to live for 2 months in the cellars, with very little food, no heating, no light. This winter was also unusually very long and severe, so that even hospitals, offices, public and the most of private homes couldn't be heated. We worked in the Library also for several months in winter coats.

I am looking forward with great joy to your parcel, which will be a great help for me and my family, as I am caring for my mother and my sister. Most probably it will take 2 or 3 months till the parcel arrives, but I shall inform you immediately when receiving it. No, there is no duty to be paid for charity parcels.

As you were so very kind to inquire, what we would need most, I beg to communicate, that there is a great need in colonial articles, such as coffee, cocoa, tea, sugar, chocolate, condensed milk.

It is really so kind of you and your colleagues that you are taking so much interest for us. I am greatly obliged for your generosity, which I dare to accept only because I feel it is offered with sincere good-will."

MEMBERS OF THE CALIFORNIA LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

As far as the Executive Secretary has been notified, this list is correct to May 1, 1947, the date of delinquency for the calendar year. The number at the end of each membership is the registration number, indicating the order in which the members joined the Association. The names of the institutional members are printed in a separate list following the list of individual members.

The Committee on Revenue and Taxation held a hearing on Assembly Bill 2484 on May 1st. This bill will, if passed, exempt city and county libraries from payment of sales tax on books. The bill was not moved out of committee but the vote was very close, and it may be possible that later action will succeed in bringing it to the Assembly.

Distinguished authors were guests of honor at a tea sponsored by the Palo Alto Friends of the Library at the Castilleja School on April 13. Only authors whose work is largely for adults were invited at this time. Later those who write for children and young people will be honored. Among those present were Sara Bard Field, Anne B. Fisher, Albert J. Guerard, Albert L. Guerard, Margery Bailey, Edwin M. Hulme, Joseph Henry Jackson, George E. Lemaitre, Janet Lewis, Richard T. LaPiere, Edith R. Mirrielees, Ruth Comfort Mitchell, Fremont Older, Wallace Stegner, Graham Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, Darwin Teilhet, Hildegard Tolman Teilhet, Mary Tresidder, Albert Rhys Williams, Bailey Willis, Ivor Winter.
